Policy on Attendance and Class Participation:

Learning the law is a collaborative process. Your class attendance and participation is extremely important to all of us. I expect each of you to come to class prepared to make intelligent and informed contributions to class discussions. Except in the case of last-minute emergency, please let me know in advance by phone or e-mail if you will be missing a class. Also, understand that class attendance and participation may be a factor in determining your course grade.

The use of laptops will not be permitted during class.
